

CHURCH SEATS AND CHURCH PEWS

New Styles Cheap and Endurable.

Comfort and Beauty Combined.

UNTIL the large number of people who are never seen in churches can be assured that every church in this vicinity will have a set of seats that will be clean, comfortable and inviting, they will not be seen inside a church. Many churches will supply this long-felt want if they could do so at prices and on terms within their reach, thus increasing their attendance, drawing on the unusually large number of people who do not attend the churches, and which would evidently result in every service being crowded. A barrier has been in the way in the form of high prices, shoddy goods and no terms. This barrier has been removed by the Church Supply Department of the National Baptist Publishing Board, which has presented the new style church seat (its own creation and its own make). These seats are constructed of the best grade of hardwood. They are built by the best skilled mechanics and have proven to be the most comfortable ever offered at the prices. The terms on which they can be purchased are so easy that any church, regardless of its financial condition, can secure a set of these by a small cash payment, have the seats installed and pay the remainder in monthly or quarterly payments to suit their own financial condition. How long, with such inviting inducements offered, will it be, before every church in and about Nashville will get a set of seats? References can be given to the Nashville churches by referring them to Rev. L. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the St. John Baptist Church, Pearl St.; Rev. J. I. Harding, pastor of the North Third Avenue Baptist Church, both of whom have seated with new style church seats; Rev. G. B. Taylor, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, corner Stevens and DeLuge Sts.; Rev. Wm. Haynes, pastor of Sylvan Street Church, Shelby Avenue, who have installed the church pews.

Mr. Fred D. Thomas and his sister, Mrs. T. E. Smiley, were suddenly called to the bedside of their father, Mr. Cain Thomas, at Goodlettsville, who was thought to be dying from a severe attack of cramp colic and appendicitis. Through the earnest efforts of the physician in charge Mr. Thomas' condition is improved, though he is not yet out of danger.

Miss Laura Lewis, of Morrison and Jackson streets, will leave for Kingston Springs, Sunday morning.

Rev. Wm. Haynes, pastor of Sylvan Street Baptist Church, joined in wedding two young couples last week. On July 4, Mr. Ernest Bloodworth and Miss Grace Walton; July 6, Mr. Irvin Boyd and Miss Cynthia Payne.

Mr. Fred D. Thomas went to Bowling Green, Ky., last Sunday to visit his little daughter, Daisy.

Dr. Landry, of New Orleans, while on his way to Chicago, stopped over in this city to see the game between New Orleans and the Giants. He was accompanied to the park by Messrs. J. W. Bostic and E. R. Carney.

Miss Matte Southall, who has been very sick for several weeks at the home of Mrs. Thompson on Lewis street, is convalescent.

Miss Willa B. Dodson, who has been ill for several weeks, is still improving.

Miss Birdie Grant, of Jackson street, will shortly leave the city for Colorado, where her mother will reside. Miss Josie Grant left the city a few days ago for St. Louis. She will visit friends in Mississippi before returning to Nashville.

One of the best social events of the season was that given some time ago by Bishop and Mrs. C. H. Phillips of Twelfth avenue, North, to their son, Jasper Tappan Phillips, of the class of '07, Fisk University, the faculty and members of the class, with the family, were the guests.

Mrs. Moses Mayberry, of Franklin, who has been visiting her daughters, the Misses Mayberry, of 821 Cedar street, left Tuesday for her home.

Miss Georgia A. Lofton, of Shankland street, entertained Wednesday night in honor of Miss Sullivan, of Wilmington, N. C.

Mrs. Kate Brown, of 1610 Patterson street, is at home for a few weeks' rest.

Miss Sullivan, of Wilmington, N. C., spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Miss Sophia Jackson, of North Hill street, and Mrs. Mary Hardiman, of 507 Seventh avenue, South.

Mrs. Dismukes, of 516 Fourteenth avenue, North, who has been seriously ill, is now on the road to recovery.

Mr. T. G. West, a former teacher in the public schools and more recently a clerk in the Nashville post office, has not yet entirely recovered his health.

MT. OLIVE SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS.

The officers and teachers of Mt. Olive Baptist Sunday School held a special meeting at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. Lewis, at 1025 Clinton street, Monday evening. The purpose of the meeting was to look into and devise plans by which the school could be enlarged and made better. This is one of the direct results of the Sunday School Congress recently held in New Orleans, and it seems that the Mt. Olive Church is the first to catch the inspiration. The Sunday school is at present under the superintendency of Mrs. Carrie Young, who is making wonderful success. The teachers and officers present Monday evening were Misses Annie F. Brame, Clara Adams, Minnie Adams, Pearl Brooks, Lovie Blake, Esta Gordan, Mrs. Eliza Wiley, Messrs. Cleve Houston, Robert Moody, Henry A. Boyd, Bennie Edwards, Leon Hurt, Burt Stanley, T. J. Lewis, Elliott, Wm. Young, John Bates, Misses Bertie Tidwell, Mary Dunson, Willa M. Hurt, Mesdames Fannie Whitty, Carrie V. Young and Minerva Bates. About ten o'clock ices and other refreshments were served. Word was given out that similar meetings will be had from time to time to bring about a compact and uniform action and purpose on the part of the Sunday school workers of that church.

CARNATION CLUB.

Mrs. Ward entertained the Carnation Club at her residence, corner of Bass street and Ewing avenue, on Monday afternoon. The President, Mrs. H. M. Burns, presided at the meeting. After the business hour was over, half an hour was spent in work. The ladies are doing some very nice work to put on exhibition the night of the entertainment. At 5 o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room, where an ice and fruit course was served. The table was beautifully decorated, its centerpiece being cut flowers with battenburg work. Those present were Messrs. H. M. Burns, M. S. Amos, W. S. Rucker, M. T. Fowler, P. A. Simms, Sidney Bond, H. Pullen, C. H. Duff, Robert Ralph, E. A. Turner, S. Holland, A. Vauxh, Washington, Ward, and the club guests, Mesdames Darden and Nichols. The Club will meet with Mrs. Holland, Bass street, next Monday afternoon.

THE APPROACHING NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION.

Possibly one of the most widely known and more generally talked of meetings held in the United States each year is the National Baptist Convention, representing as it does the largest number of religious people identified with the race. The Convention meets this year in Washington, D. C. Dr. Morris, the president, has already issued his annual letter, and the program committee, which met about a month ago has arranged an excellent program for the occasion. The meeting will have a larger attendance than ever before, for many reasons. The first is that the Baptists seem to be doing thorough work in their Convention. The second, however, appears to be because it meets in the National Capitol, where so many Negroes long to go. And last, but not least, because by going to the National Convention, an opportunity is given to visit the Jamestown Exposition on the return trip. A larger delegation will go from Nashville than on any previous occasion. Naturally all of the ministers in this city attend these conventions. This year it seems that they will be joined by quite a few of the members of their churches. One pastor stated that practically all of his congregation expected to go. Some of the members, he said, would take their whole family on this trip. As the time draws near the interest seems to increase. The meeting last year in Memphis drew considerably on Nashville, but from appearances now, the record will be broken this year.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Master William Henry McCauley, of 1805 1-2 State street, was entertained at dinner last Sunday by his father in honor of the eighth anniversary of his birth. The young guests presented a pretty scene seated around a table beautifully decorated in green and white, with a centerpiece holding a cake decorated with roses, around which burned eight candles. Those present were little Misses Louise Scruggs, Emma Harlen, the Misses Wade, Masters Mansfield Douglas, Albert Scruggs and Elias Harlen.

MRS. HOFFMAN NO BETTER.

Wm. W. B. Reed, of 1305 Eleventh avenue, South, received a telegram from his daughter, Mrs. Lydia A. Hoffman, last Tuesday, bringing him the sad intelligence that she was no better. Mrs. Hoffman resides in St. Louis, and has been indisposed for several months. Mr. Reed visited his daughter recently, but his duties compelled him to return home. Mrs. Hoffman has many friends in this city who are very anxious about her health.

AIRSHIPS.

Parallel with the progress in automobile manufacture has been the increasing interest in machines for aerial navigation. There are to-day over 200 airships projected or in course of construction in England alone. The Ohio State Journal (Columbus), which furnishes this information, continues with descriptions of some of the apparatus:

In other lands the interest in air navigation fairly rages. The new designs and principles of flight are very interesting. One man proposes a "cyclone" air-ship. The lifting power is quite like the spiral motion of a cyclone, which is developed by "semi-spiral revolving tubes" which catch the air and so confine and compress it that there is a lifting power in letting it loose, quite like that of a cyclone. Think of that—riding through the fenceless fields of air on an artificial cyclone!

The most extravagant idea in the air-ship enterprise comes from New York. There a man has conceived the idea of propelling an air-ship by explosions of gas. His adventure is startling. He proposes a steel ship 150 feet long, 1,000-horse-power, weight 250 tons. This monster is to be equipped with 1,000 or more air chambers, with trumpets attached, and by explosions of gas through these, motion is developed and direction secured. Isn't that a sweep of the inventive genius? Think of flying through the air on the wings of an incessant explosion! Wherever one goes, it would be thunder from a clear sky.

Another sort of motor for air-flying is the screw, very like that of a ship, which is very like the Knabenshue motor, except that the new arrangement of screw gives direction as well as propelling force. And so the work goes on over the world. There are, probably, a thousand air-ships building to-day, and next year certainly one of them will fly. It is going to be very interesting to live for the next year or two. To take a celestial jaunt is to be one of the joys of the good time a-coming.

The lecture last night at First Baptist Church, Eighth avenue, North, by Mrs. V. W. Broughton, though not so largely attended, owing to the inclemency of the weather, was a masterly effort. By her graphic description in eloquent and charming strains of her experiences and sights seen en route, she carried her audience as far as Rome, where, due to the lateness of the hour, she was compelled to leave them till Sunday night.
